DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 7-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Puglis. Puglis shows a dispenser package comprising a single portable packaging, a first applicator 26 with a solution disposed within the single portable packaging and a second applicator 26 with another solution disposed within the single portable packaging wherein the first and second applicators are slender tubular containers as recited in claim 8. Since Puglis shows all of the structural limitations of the instant invention, first applicator can be used to clean a surface and the second applicator can be used to medically treat the surface in which the solutions can comprise the various solutions as recited in claims 9 and 10 since these statements are of intended use.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 11 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Puglis.

Art Unit: 3752

Since Puglis discloses the structural limitations of the instant invention, the material from which the single portable package is made would merely have been matters of design choice.

5. Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Puglis.

Since Puglis discloses the structural limitations of the instant invention as stated above, the device of Puglis is capable of carrying out the methods of claims 1-4. Regarding claims 5 and 6, the material from which the single portable package is made would merely have been matters of design choice.

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The patents to Nance, Conway et al., Knetsch, Kozlowski, and Burns are pertinent to Applicant's invention.
